

Not All Valentines Look Good in Red!

Next Event: Friday, February 10th, 2012
When: 12:30-1:30, check-in at 12:15

Where: Dillard's Chapel Hills, Meeting Room, 3rd floor @ Customer Svc. Center
What to bring? Something from your wardrobe that you have color questions about

Have you wondered if you look good in red, and if so, what shade of red? The good news is that everybody has a red they can wear, the question is, what is it? Is it warm, cool, light, dark, bright or matte?

Like the foundation of your house needing to be strong and solid, finding your most wonderful colors is the true foundation to a winning wardrobe. At this event you are encouraged to bring something from your closet that you are wondering if it's your color. Tia will demonstrate color basics and how to get started finding your best neutral, accent, and metal tones. And, there are also colors you should definitely avoid wearing too!

After the program you have the option of staying for an additional hour and Tia will help you look for great colors at Dillard's, plus, you will receive Tia's 25% discount on clothes, shoes, and accessories. Don't miss this opportunity to learn about the magic of color!
